

I am opposed to rule changes that allow more consolidation of media ownership. I support regulations that limit ownership so that broadcast and print media are owned by many different owners and many different viewpoints can be expressed through the media. The FCC should protect the public interest and democracy and should not cater to the interests of the industry it is charged with regulating.